Venerable Master's Message

June is a vibrant month that signals the arrival of summer in the Northern Hemisphere. It's a time of longer daylight hours, warm temperatures, and the full bloom of nature. Many people embrace the season by spending time outdoors, traveling, or celebrating various events. The month is named after Juno, the Roman goddess of marriage and childbirth, making it historically associated with weddings. In addition, schools often conclude their academic year in June, marking the beginning of summer vacations and leisure activities.

One of the significant features of June is the summer solstice, which occurs between June 20 and 22. This is the longest day of the year, when the sun reaches its highest point in the sky. Cultures around the world celebrate the solstice with festivals, rituals, and gatherings. It's a time of reflection, gratitude, and anticipation for the warm, sunny months ahead. Some people also observe June 19th, a national holiday, celebrated with parades, discussions, and celebrations.

For those who maintain a structured schedule, June can include regular meetings and gatherings.

A notable date for such occasions is the fourth day of the month, our regular stated meeting. It's a professional business meeting, and a social event. June 4 serves as a point of connection for individuals to discuss goals, review progress, or simply enjoy each other's company. The consistency of regular meetings can bring organization and a sense of stability to an otherwise dynamic month.

The seventh is the Philippine Independence Day celebration, commemorating the independence of the Philippines from Spain. Time to break out those Filipiniana outfits, and showcase the colorful, unique, and lovely costume the Philippines is very proud of. Overall, June is a period of transition and celebration, balancing the excitement of summer with meaningful traditions and important observances. Whether you're enjoying the sunshine, participating in seasonal events, or attending regular meetings, June provides an opportunity to embrace new experiences and continue valued routines.

ANNUAL GIVING

DONATION TIERS

The California Scottish Rite Foundation has established the following 6 donation club tiers: Anniversary Club, 365 Club, Let's Talk Club, Chairman's Silver Club, Chairman's Gold Club, and Chairman's Diamond Club. The annual donation amounts are included with the symbols. All 6 symbols have a heart as the main feature. The heart symbolizes love and charity, which perfectly depicts our donor's generosity. Our monthly bulletin will now reflect these tiers. In addition, we are grateful for those who contribute through the Perfect Donor Program, which was established by the Scottish Rite Valley of San Diego. Those donors will continue to be recognized in the bulletin as well. Every donation makes a difference in the lives of children and families throughout San Diego. Thank you for your support of the RiteCare Childhood Language Center of San Diego!
